

Legendary Places:

A Regional Symposium about Placemaking

Presented by Ochsner Hare & Hare, Planning Consultants and Landscape Architects, in Celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Founding of the Original Hare & Hare Firm

WHEN: May 6, 2010, 2:30-4:45 p.m., followed by reception - Save the Date!

WHERE: Liberty Memorial, Kansas City, MO (an historic Hare & Hare project)
J.C. Nichols auditorium

WHY: Celebrating Ochsner Hare & Hare's 100th anniversary; honoring its legacy of placemaking; educating the KC region on value of place in the community

COST: $25 per person, including reception, for reservations made through April 9, $30 beginning April 10. Checks can be made payable to OHH (Please include full company name, all attendee's names, address, phone and reference "Symposium") or register through our website with a credit card.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Fred Kent, founder and President of Project for Public Spaces, is a dynamic speaker with an international following. He is a leading authority on revitalizing city spaces and one of the foremost global thinkers on livability, smart growth and the future of the city. Each year, he and the PPS staff train 10,000 people in placemaking techniques.

SPEAKERS:

Gary Scott, FASLA, President, American Society of Landscape Architects. Currently is Parks and Recreation Director of West Des Moines, Iowa, where he has increased parkland from 138 acres to 1222 acres and the miles of trails from 0 to 45. He is a strong advocate of active citizen participation in the design process. He collaborated with all sectors of the community to ensure that projects meet expectations, are supported and funded.

Bruce Knight, President, FAICP, American Planning Association, currently is Planning Director of Champaign, Illinois. He has more than 30 years of planning experience working for municipalities in Iowa, Missouri and Illinois. He has overseen multiple long range plans and the rebirth of Downtown, Champaign. He is a strong advocate for quality of life issues and has chaired APA's National Planning Awards and the Great Places in America Task Force.

